Primary Instructor Bio:

A native Hoosier, BJ earned a bachelor's degree in Asian Studies from Purdue and spent several years as a resident of Beijing, China. He is now the President of the International Center's Board of Directors in West Lafayette, Indiana, and the owner of Moyars Consulting, LLC, where he frequently aids law enforcement agencies in situations involving foreign nationals. Having previously worked as a police officer, he recognizes the growing international population across the country will present new challenges to law enforcement. From his experience abroad, he noticed distinct cultural differences in relation to mandated training areas and investigation techniques. This course is designed specifically to help police prepare for those challenges in a way that also fulfills the mandated annual training requirements.
